II. BACKGROUND

A. Shell’s Recategorization of Proved Hydrocarbon Reserves

1. On January 9, 2004, Shell announced that, based on the results of an internal review, it would recategorize approximately 3.9 billion barrels of oil equivalent (“boe”) of proved reserves. Following completion of the internal review and subsequent efforts on the recategorization, Shell ultimately recategorized 4.47 billion boe, or approximately 23%, of the proved reserves it reported as of year-end 2002, because they did not comply with the applicable definitions of “proved” reserves for Securities and Exchange Commission hydrocarbon reserve reporting (the “Reserves Recategorization”). On October 28, 2004, Shell announced that it was considering potential additional recategorizations as a result of the detailed audit processes put in place following the Reserves Recategorization.

2. On February 5, 2004, Shell announced that its Group Audit Committee ("GAC") was conducting an internal inquiry into the processes surrounding past reserves bookings. On March 3, 2004, following a preliminary report to the GAC on the independent review, two senior executives of the Company resigned, Sir Philip Watts, Chairman of Shell's Committee of Managing Directors, and Walter van de Vijver, CEO of the Exploration and Production business.

3. On April 19, 2004, Shell reported that the GAC's independent investigation into the circumstances surrounding the Reserves Recategorization had been completed and that the almost 500-page report of the investigation (the "GAC Report") had been accepted by the Boards. Consistent with its earlier commitment to make public the main conclusions of the GAC investigation, Shell released the Executive Summary and the Remedial Action sections of the GAC Report to the public.

B. The Derivative Actions

1. On June 2, 2004, Soojian was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on behalf of RD shareholders claiming that the individual defendants in that action had breached their fiduciary duties to RD and should be liable for indemnification to RD for the losses they had caused. The Soojian Complaint also seeks an order from the court requiring the defendants to "implement corrective measures that will rectify all such wrongs as have been committed and prevent their recurrence."

2. On June 8, 2004, Epstein was filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York on behalf of STT shareholders claiming that the individual defendants in that action had breached their fiduciary duties to STT and should be liable for indemnification to STT for the losses they had caused. The Epstein Complaint also seeks an order from the court requiring the defendants to “implement corrective measures that will rectify all such wrongs as have been committed and prevent their recurrence.”

3. On June 25, 2004, this Action was filed in the Superior Court of New Jersey for Middlesex County. On July 28, 2004, Auditor Defendants KPMG LLP and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (U.S.) removed this Action to the Court. On September 30, 2004 the Complaint was filed. The Action includes claims against the Individual Defendants for breach of fiduciary duties or aiding and abetting breaches by others, abuse of their control over the Companies, gross mismanagement, constructive fraud and unjust enrichment. The Action further alleges professional negligence and accounting malpractice against the Auditor Defendants. The Action seeks monetary damages, an accounting by all defendants of the damages they caused to the Companies and “special benefits and unjust enrichment” the defendants have obtained and an order directing the Companies “to take all necessary actions to reform and improve their corporate governance and internal control procedures to comply with Sarbanes-Oxley.” The Complaint specifies a list of corporate governance policies that the Companies would need to adopt, including policies relating to the “unification of the two Boards” and “a proposal to simplify the corporate structure.”

4. On September 2, 2004, Staeher was filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York on behalf of shareholders of RD claiming that the individual defendants in that action had breached their fiduciary duties and engaged in other misconduct and should be liable to RD for the losses they caused to RD as well as disgorge to RD any unjust profits they realized.

C. Initial Discussions

1. On September 24, 2004, Plaintiffs' Counsel and representatives of Plaintiffs met with the Companies' Counsel and senior in-house legal counsel for Shell. The Parties discussed the various jurisdictional, venue and service issues arising out of the Action and the Related Actions. The Parties also discussed the proposed corporate governance relief that Plaintiffs had included in the Complaint and agreed that Plaintiffs' Counsel, together with an expert in corporate governance matters, would provide Shell with a more detailed set of proposed governance terms that could be evaluated by the Companies' Counsel. Plaintiffs' Counsel provided a more detailed list of such terms in early October 2004 (the "Corporate Governance Terms").

2. On October 8, 2004, Plaintiffs' Counsel made a 21-page demand on the Companies setting forth in detail Plaintiffs' proposed corporate governance enhancements.

D. Shell's Unification Announcement

1. On October 28, 2004, Shell announced that "[t]he Boards of RD and ST&T have unanimously agreed to propose to their shareholders the unification of the Royal Dutch / Shell Group of Companies under a single parent company, Royal Dutch Shell plc. Real reforms in management and governance structure are also planned.” Under the terms of the proposed unification transaction, the Royal Dutch/Shell Group of Companies will have a single parent company, Royal Dutch Shell, with a single board of directors and a Chief Executive Officer. Shell further announced that it expected the transaction to be completed in May 2005.

2. The October 28 Unification announcement was a product of a Governance Review and resulted from a Steering and Working Group’s consideration of the views expressed by a number of shareholders, including the positions advanced by Plaintiffs through the Complaint in this Action and in the Related Derivative Actions.

E. Settlement Discussions

1. On December 1, 2004, the Companies’ Counsel, senior counsel from Shell, Plaintiffs’ Counsel, representatives from Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs’ corporate governance expert met at Shell’s offices in London, England. In that meeting, the Parties held extensive discussions on the Corporate Governance Terms, including a discussion of provisions that the Companies’ Counsel would be willing to recommend that Shell adopt as part of a potential resolution of the Action and the Related Actions. The Parties also discussed the prospects of a potential resolution and the timing of such a resolution given the progress of the Unification announced on October 28, 2004. At the end of the meeting and as a next step in the Parties’ consideration of a potential resolution, the Companies’ Counsel agreed to provide Plaintiffs with revised Corporate Governance Terms that the Companies’ Counsel would be prepared to present and recommend to the Companies and the Boards.

2. Between December 1, 2004 and May 11, 2005, the Parties, their counsel and plaintiffs' expert continued to negotiate corporate governance enhancements. A definitive set of corporate governance changes was agreed to on May 11, 2005, which is incorporated herein by reference and attached hereto as Exhibit A.

III. SETTLEMENT RELIEF

As a direct result of the pendency and prosecution of the Action and the extensive negotiations between the Parties, a proposed settlement has been reached that includes the following:

A. Within 30 days after the Approval Date or such other time as the parties may agree, the Boards or, as appropriate, the Board of Directors of Royal Dutch Shell will take such steps as are necessary to adopt and implement the Corporate Governance Principles in Exhibit A (the "Corporate Governance Principles"), to the extent such Corporate Governance Principles are consistent with applicable laws, as policies, standards, procedures and/or guidelines of Royal Dutch Shell. The Company believes that the Corporate Governance Principles can be implemented in a manner consistent with applicable laws.

B. The Parties agree that the Corporate Governance Principles as adopted will be reflected in the appropriate corporate governance and other policy documents of Royal Dutch Shell and constitute a substantial benefit to Royal Dutch Shell. Accordingly, the Parties agree that the Company may, in good faith and in the reasonable exercise of judgment, alter or modify as necessary the specific language of the Corporate Governance Principles to facilitate such implementation, provided however, that no material change to the substance of the Corporate Governance Principles shall be made absent approval of the Plaintiffs unless such change is made pursuant to Section III.C. The Parties further agree that reasonable interpretation of the Corporate Governance Principles shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

C. The Corporate Governance Principles, as adopted, shall be subject to amendment by the Board, in whole or in part, so long as such amendment: (i) is made to reflect consistency with applicable laws; or (ii) is determined in good faith to be in the best interest of Royal Dutch Shell by a majority of the independent members of the Board of Directors or the shareholders. Shareholders will be advised of any such changes.

IV. DISCOVERY

A. Subject to the provisions of a mutually-acceptable confidentiality agreement which includes, among other things, a provision that provides that the discovery contemplated by this Settlement Agreement shall be used only in connection with the settlement of this Action, Plaintiffs' Counsel will continue to conduct reasonable discovery into the facts underlying the claims in the Complaint to confirm that the underlying facts are consistent with their understanding, as supported by their review of materials, including the Companies' public filings and the Executive Summary of the GAC Report, and that the proposed Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

B. Plaintiffs' Counsel has stated that such additional discovery will consist of a review of relevant Shell documents, including the full GAC Report and supporting materials and testimony of Shell employees before the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and the United Kingdom Financial Services Authority, which additional discovery will be undertaken pursuant to the terms of the confidentiality agreement to be negotiated pursuant to Section IV.A above.

C. The discovery contemplated by this Section shall be conducted as soon as practicable after the execution of this Settlement Agreement, but in any case shall be completed no later than August 31, 2005.

D. If, as a result of concluding the additional discovery contemplated by this Section, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel continue to believe that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate, the Parties shall execute an amendment to this Settlement Agreement indicating that the discovery contemplated by the Settlement Agreement has been completed and setting out Plaintiffs' and Plaintiffs' Counsel's finding that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

E. If, as a result of concluding the additional discovery contemplated by this Section, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel reasonably and in good faith do not believe that the proposed Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate, they will have the right to terminate or to renegotiate this Settlement Agreement within 10 days of the conclusion of the discovery contemplated by this Section.

V. NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND RIGHT OF COMMUNICATION

A. Notice

1. Subject to the requirements of the Hearing Order and no later than 45 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, the Companies shall cause the Notice to be published in the two national newspapers with the largest reported circulation in the United States, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom and the international editions of two newspapers. In addition, the Companies will post the Notice on the www.shell.com website beginning 45 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing and continuing through the date of the Fairness Hearing. The Companies will pay for the costs associated with producing and publishing the Notice.

2. The Notice shall: (i) contain a short and plain statement of the background of the Action and the proposed settlement; (ii) generally describe the nature of the relief provided; (iii) state that any relief is contingent on the Court's final approval of the proposed settlement; (iv) inform Stockholders of the date of the Fairness Hearing and of their right to object to the Settlement Agreement; (v) conform to the requirements of the United States Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including but not limited to, Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 23.1, the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law; and (vi) otherwise be in a manner and form agreed upon by the Parties to this Settlement Agreement and approved by the Court.

3. A copy of the proposed Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

B. Right of Communication with Stockholders

1. The Companies expressly reserve the right to communicate with and respond to inquiries by Stockholders with respect to matters unrelated to this Settlement Agreement, including but not limited to the Unification, and may do so through any appropriate agency.

2. The Companies may undertake such efforts to communicate with Stockholders regarding the Notice and terms of this Settlement as the Companies deem necessary or appropriate, including telephone communications. Any written communication to the Companies by any Stockholder regarding the Settlement Agreement, or any written communication to a Stockholder by the Companies regarding the Settlement Agreement, shall be provided to Plaintiffs' Counsel as soon as practical after the communication is received or generated, as the case may be.

C. Media Communications

1. Plaintiffs' Counsel and Companies' Counsel agree to cooperate in good faith to ensure that (i) any comments about or descriptions of the proposed settlement in the media or any other public forum are balanced, fair and accurate and (ii) any press releases announcing the proposed settlement are provided in advance to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Companies' Counsel before dissemination or publication; provided however, that the Companies shall be able to make, without notification to or prior review or approval by Plaintiffs' Counsel, any and all disclosures regarding the Settlement Agreement that the Companies believe may be required or appropriate under applicable law or by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Companies' securities trade, or as required in connection with a judicial or regulatory proceeding.

VI. OBJECTIONS TO SETTLEMENT

A. Any Stockholder who wishes to object to the fairness, reasonableness or adequacy of this Settlement Agreement or the proposed settlement, must deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel, and file with the Court, no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing or as the Court may otherwise direct, a statement of his, her or its objection, as well as the specific reason(s), if any, for each objection, including any legal support the Stockholder wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the Stockholder wishes to introduce in support of the objection. Stockholders may so object either on their own or through an attorney hired at their own expense.

B. If a Stockholder hires an attorney to represent him, her or it, the attorney must (i) file a notice of appearance with the Clerk of the Court no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, or as the Court otherwise may direct, and (ii) deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel no later than 14 calendar days before the Settlement Hearing a copy of the same.

C. Any Stockholder who files and serves a written objection, as described in this Section, may appear at the Fairness Hearing, either in person or through personal counsel hired at the Stockholder's expense, to object to the fairness, reasonableness or adequacy of this Agreement or the proposed settlement. Stockholders or their attorneys who intend to make an appearance at the Fairness Hearing must deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, or as the Court may otherwise direct, a notice of intention to appear.

D. Any Stockholder who fails to comply with the provisions of this Section shall waive and forfeit any and all rights he, she or it may have to appear separately and/or object.

VII. RELEASE AND WAIVER, AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL

A. Release and Waiver

1. Plaintiffs and the Companies agree to the following release and waiver, which shall take effect upon the Derivative Final Settlement Date:

a. Subject to Sections VII.A.2, VII.A.3, VII.A.6 and VII.A.7 below, Plaintiffs and the Companies hereby release and discharge the Releasees from, and shall not now or hereafter institute, participate in, maintain, maintain a right to, or assert against the Releasees, either directly or indirectly, derivatively, on their own behalf, or on behalf of any other person or entity, any and all causes of action, claims, damages, awards, equitable, legal and administrative relief, interest, demands or rights, including, without limitation, claims for rescission, restitution, unjust enrichment or all damages of any kind, including those in excess of actual damages, whether based on federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, regulation, contract, common law, or any other source, that have been, could have been or might hereafter be alleged or asserted by Plaintiffs or the Companies against the Releasees or any of them in this Action, the Related Derivative Actions, or in any other court action or before any administrative body, tribunal, arbitration panel, or other adjudicatory body that relate in any way, directly or indirectly, to the allegations contained in the Complaint or in any of the complaints filed in the Related Derivative Actions, including, without limitation:

(1) any or all of the acts, omissions, nondisclosures, facts, matters, transactions, occurrences, or oral or written statements or representations that have been, may be or could be directly or indirectly alleged, asserted, described, set forth or referred to in this Action or the Related Derivative Actions;

(2) any SEC filing by any of the Releasees for the period 1997 through the date of this Agreement;

(3) any forward-looking statement made by any of the Releasees for the period 1997 through the date of this Agreement;

(4) any disclosures of any sort made by any of the Releasees for the period 1997 through the date of this Agreement;

(5) the Companies' hydrocarbon reserve and financial reporting and/or accounting practices for the period 1997 through the date of this Agreement, including without limitation any or all acts, omissions, nondisclosures, facts, matters, transactions, occurrences, or oral or written statements or representations made or allegedly made in connection with or directly or indirectly relating to the Companies' financial statements, supplemental hydrocarbon reserve disclosures and/or internal financial controls, record-keeping or reporting mechanisms;

(6) the salaries, bonuses, and termination or other payments paid to the Companies' present and former executives and/or directors (i) at any time before the date on which this Release becomes effective or (ii) if paid pursuant to an obligation entered into by the Companies before the date on which this Release becomes effective, then at any future time;

(7) the Boards' supervision and oversight of the Companies' management and affairs during the period of 1997 through the date of this Agreement;

(8) all claims relating in any way, directly or indirectly, to any or all acts, omissions, nondisclosures, facts, matters, transactions, occurrences or oral or written statements or representations in connection with the Settlement Agreement or the settlement of this Action (including, without limitation, all claims respecting the negotiation and execution of this Agreement);

(9) except as provided in this Agreement, any and all claims for attorneys' fees, expert witness fees and/or other costs or disbursements incurred by Plaintiffs' Counsel or any other counsel representing Plaintiffs in this Action or in the Related Derivative Actions, or by Plaintiffs in this Action, or any of them, in connection with or in any way related to this Action and/or the settlement of this Action; and/or

(10) any breaches of fiduciary duty (or other duty placed upon corporate directors and officers by common law or statute) and/or obligations under federal or state law, including the United States securities laws.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, nothing in this Release shall be deemed to release the claims currently pending in the Class Actions or preclude Plaintiffs or Stockholders who are members of any certified class in the Class Actions from participating in any relief awarded in the Class Actions.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, nothing in this Release shall be deemed to release claims, if any, that the Companies may have against any Releasee who files, commences, prosecutes, intervenes in, or otherwise participates in, any action or proceeding against the Companies, or who asserts any claims (including for contribution or indemnity) against the Companies in any action or proceeding.

4. Plaintiffs and the Companies expressly understand that principles of law in some jurisdictions, such as Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, provide that a general release does not extend to claims that a creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, and that, if known by him or her, must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor. To the extent that, as a result of or notwithstanding the choice of law provisions in the Settlement Agreement, California or other law may be applicable, Plaintiffs and the Companies expressly waive with respect to Releasees all rights afforded by Section 1542 and all similar federal, state or foreign laws, rights, rules, or legal principles which may be applicable herein, and Plaintiffs and the Companies hereby agree and acknowledge that this is an essential term of this Release. Section 1542 states as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542 and all similar federal, state or foreign laws, rights, rules, or legal principles which may be applicable herein, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release, Plaintiffs and the Companies understand and agree that this Release is intended to include all claims, if any, which Plaintiffs and/or the Companies may have and which Plaintiffs and/or the Companies do not now know or suspect to exist in their favor against the Releasees, and that this Release extinguishes those claims.

5. In connection with this Release, Plaintiffs and the Companies acknowledge that they are aware that they may hereafter discover claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those that they now know or believe to be true with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intention of Plaintiffs and the Companies in executing this Release fully, finally and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all claims relating thereto, that exist, hereafter may exist, or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action or proceeding) with respect to the matters released.

6. Nothing in this Release shall preclude any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, nothing in this Release shall preclude any action by the Companies against any of the Individual Defendants or other Releasees to: (i) enforce the provisions of any severance or related compromise agreement between the Companies or any affiliates and an Individual Defendant that require the Individual Defendant to cooperate with the Companies and relevant governmental authorities; or (ii) to recover attorney's fees and other expenses advanced to an Individual Defendant if that Individual Defendant is ultimately determined not to have met the applicable standards for indemnification under relevant law.

8. Plaintiffs and the Companies hereby agree and acknowledge that the provisions of this Release together constitute an essential term of the Settlement Agreement.

B. Order of Dismissal and Release

1. The Parties will seek and obtain from the Court a Final Judgment and an Order Approving Settlement as further described below in Section X. The Final Judgment and the Order Approving Settlement shall, among other things, (i) approve the Settlement Agreement as fair, reasonable and adequate pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.1; (ii) dismiss the Action as to the Companies and the Individual Defendants with prejudice and on the merits; (iii) incorporate the terms of the Release; (iv) incorporate the agreed upon Attorneys' Fees and Expenses set forth in Section VIII. A copy of the proposed Final Judgment and the proposed Order Approving Settlement are attached hereto as Exhibits D and E, respectively.

VIII. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND LITIGATION EXPENSES

A. As a unitary part of the settlement, set forth herein and in recognition of the benefits provided to the Companies as a result of the prosecution and settlement of this Action, the Companies agree to pay Plaintiffs an award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in this Action in the amount of nine million, two hundred thousand dollars ($9,200,000). The Attorneys' Fees and Expenses will be paid by the Companies, subject to the conditions below, within ten (10) business days of the Approval Date.

B. If (i) the Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement approving this Action are reversed, vacated, modified and/or remanded for further proceedings or otherwise disposed of in any manner other than one resulting in an affirmance of such Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement and the Companies or Plaintiffs properly and timely terminate the Settlement Agreement in accordance with Section XI.B of this Settlement Agreement or (ii) the Derivative Final Settlement Date does not occur for any reason, then Plaintiffs' Counsel shall within 10 business days return to the Companies the amount of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses paid by the Companies with interest at the Interest Rate.

C. Plaintiffs' Counsel's obligation to return any of the Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, as described in Section VIII.B above, shall be evidenced by a promissory note, which note shall be executed individually and on behalf of the firms. A copy of the promissory note is attached hereto as Exhibit F. In addition, Plaintiffs' Counsel, as a condition of receiving Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, on behalf of itself and each partner and/or shareholder of it, agrees that their respective law firms and their partners and/or shareholders are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court for the purpose of enforcing this Section VIII of the Settlement Agreement. Without limitation, the law firms and their partners and/or shareholders agree that the Court may, upon application of the Companies, on notice to the law firms, summarily issue orders, including, but not limited to, judgments and attachment orders, and may make appropriate findings of or sanctions for contempt, against them or any of them should the law firms fail timely to repay any amounts pursuant to this Section VIII of the Settlement Agreement.

D. Neither the Companies nor Individual Defendants, nor any of their respective past, present and future parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors and assigns, nor any of their respective past, present and future officers, directors, partners, principals, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, heirs, administrators, executors, insurers, predecessors, successors and assigns, or any of them, shall be liable for or obligated to pay any fees, expenses, costs or disbursements to, or incur any expense on behalf of, any person, either directly or indirectly, in connection with this Action, this Settlement Agreement, or the proposed settlement, other than as expressly provided for in this Settlement Agreement.

IX. ORDER OF NOTICE, FAIRNESS HEARING AND ADMINISTRATION

A. Within 30 days of execution of this Settlement Agreement, the Parties shall submit the Agreement to the Court, and seek and obtain from the Court a Hearing Order, unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties:

1. finding that the proposed settlement is sufficient to warrant publishing Notice to Stockholders;
2. scheduling the Fairness Hearing, to be held on such date as the Court may direct, to consider the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of all aspects of the proposed settlement and whether its provisions should be approved by the Court;
3. approving the proposed Notice and notice methodology described in this Agreement;
4. directing the Companies or their designee(s) to cause the Notice to be published no later than 45 days before the Settlement Hearing;

5. determining that the Notice to be provided to the Companies' Stockholders in this Action and the manner in which the Notice is to be published pursuant to this Agreement, constitute the best practicable notice and satisfy the requirements of the United States Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (including Rule 23.1), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause) and any other applicable law, and constitute due and sufficient notice of the Settlement Agreement and Fairness Hearing to all persons or entities entitled to receive such notice;

6. requiring the Companies to file proof of the publishing of the Notice at or before the Fairness Hearing;

7. authorizing the Companies to communicate with Stockholders about the Action and the terms of the proposed settlement, subject to the terms of Section V.B of this Agreement, and to engage in any other communications within the normal course of the Companies' business, including but not limited to communications in connection with the Unification;

8. preliminarily enjoining Plaintiffs, the Stockholders and the Companies (whether acting on their own behalf or by and through their Stockholders, or any of them), or any of their respective representatives, trustees, successors, heirs and assigns, from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, participating in (as a nominal defendant or otherwise), or receiving any benefits or other relief from, any other lawsuit, arbitration, or administrative, regulatory or other proceeding or order against the Releasees in any jurisdiction based on or relating to the claims and causes of action that are released by this Agreement pending the final ruling of the Court on the Settlement

Agreement; provided however, that nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall preclude shareholders or members of the alleged class in the Class Actions from participating in the Class Actions or receiving any relief awarded in the Class Actions;

9. requiring each Stockholder who wishes to object to the fairness, reasonableness or adequacy of this Settlement Agreement or the proposed settlement, to deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel and to file with the Court, no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, or at such other time as the Court may direct, a statement of his or her objection, as well as the specific reasons, if any, for each objection, including any legal support the Stockholder wishes to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the Stockholder wishes to introduce in support of his or her objection, or be forever barred from separately objecting;

10. requiring any attorney hired by a Stockholder at the Stockholder's expense for the purpose of objecting to this Agreement, the proposed settlement, or the award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, to file with the Clerk of the Court and deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, or as the Court may otherwise direct, a notice of appearance;

11. requiring any Stockholder who files and serves a written objection and who intends to make an appearance at the Fairness Hearing, either in person or through personal counsel hired at the Stockholder's expense, to file with the Court and deliver to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel no later than 14 calendar days before the Fairness Hearing, or as the Court may otherwise direct, a notice of intention to appear;

12. directing Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel promptly to furnish each other with copies of any and all objections that might come into their possession; and

13. containing any additional provisions that might be necessary to implement and administer the terms of this Agreement and the proposed settlement.

B. None of the Plaintiffs will object to the proposed settlement, file an appeal therefrom or otherwise seek review of any order approving the proposed settlement.

C. A copy of the proposed Hearing Order is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

X. FINAL APPROVAL, FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER APPROVING SETTLEMENT

A. At or after the Fairness Hearing, and upon the Court's approval of this Agreement, the Parties shall seek and obtain from the Court a Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement. The Final Judgment and/or the Order Approving Settlement shall, among other things, and taking into consideration all the facts and circumstances outlined in this Agreement:

1. find that Plaintiffs have stock in one or both of the Companies continuously since the commencement of this Action and otherwise have standing to prosecute this Action on behalf of the Companies and their Stockholders;

2. find that the Court has jurisdiction to approve the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto;

3. approve the Settlement Agreement and the proposed settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, consistent and in compliance with all applicable requirements of United States law, including the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law, and in the best interests of the Companies and their Stockholders;

4. direct the Parties and their counsel to implement and consummate this Agreement according to its terms and provisions;

5. declare this Agreement to be binding on – and, as to all claims and issues that have or could have been raised in this Action, to have res judicata and other preclusive effect in all pending and future lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of – the Parties, as well as their past, present and future parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors and assigns and affiliates and each of their respective past, present and future officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, heirs, administrators, executors, insurers, predecessors, successors, and assigns, or any of them, including any person or entity controlled by or controlling or under the control of any of them;

6. find that the Notice provided to the Companies' Stockholders in this Action and the manner in which the Notice was published, constituted the best practicable notice and satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (including Rule 23.1), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause) and any other applicable law, and constituted due and sufficient notice of the Settlement Agreement and Fairness Hearing to all persons or entities entitled to receive such notice;

7. find that Plaintiffs' Counsel and Plaintiffs brought the Action and the Related Derivative Actions in good faith and have adequately represented the interests of the Companies and their Stockholders for purposes of entering into and implementing the settlement;

8. dismiss the Action as to the Companies and the Individual Defendants on the merits and with prejudice, without fees or costs to any party except as provided in this Agreement;

9. incorporate the Release set forth above in Section VII.A, make the Release effective as of the date of the Derivative Final Settlement Date, and forever discharge the Releasees from any claims or liabilities arising from or related to the matters covered by the Release;

10. permanently bar and enjoin Plaintiffs, the Companies' shareholders and the Companies (whether acting on their own behalf or by and through their shareholders, or any of them), or any of their respective representatives, trustees, successors, heirs and assigns, from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, participating in (as a nominal defendant or otherwise), or receiving any benefits or other relief from, any other lawsuit, arbitration, or administrative, regulatory or other proceeding or order against the Releasees in any jurisdiction based on or relating to the claims and causes of action that are released by this Agreement; provided however, that nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall preclude shareholders or members of the alleged class in the Class Actions from participating in the Class Actions or receiving or participating in relief, if any, awarded in the Class Actions;

11. authorize the Parties, without further approval from the Court, to agree to and adopt such amendments, modifications and expansions of this Agreement as (i) are consistent with the Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement and (ii) do not limit the rights of Plaintiffs, the Companies and/or their Stockholders under the Settlement Agreement;

12. without affecting the finality of the Final Judgment and the Order Approving Settlement for purposes of appeal, retain jurisdiction as to all matters relating to the administration, consummation, enforcement and interpretation of this Agreement, the Final Judgment and the Order Approving Settlement, and for any other necessary purpose; provided however, that nothing in this subsection shall restrict the ability of the Parties to exercise their rights under Section XI.A below; and

13. incorporate any other provisions that the Court deems necessary and just.

B. Copies of the proposed Final Judgment and the Order Approving Settlement are attached hereto as Exhibits D and E, respectively.

XI. MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

A. The terms and provisions of this Agreement may be amended, modified or expanded by agreement of the Parties and approval of the Court; provided however, that after entry of the Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement the Parties may by agreement effect such amendments, modifications or expansions of this Agreement and its implementing documents (including all exhibits thereto) without notice to or approval by the Court if such changes are consistent with the Court's Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement and do not limit the rights of Plaintiffs, the Companies and/or their Stockholders under the Settlement Agreement.

B. This Agreement will terminate at the sole option and discretion of Plaintiffs or the Companies if (i) the Court, or any appellate court(s), rejects, modifies or denies approval of any portion of the Settlement Agreement or the proposed settlement that the terminating party in its (or their) sole judgment and discretion reasonably determine(s) is material, including, without limitation, the terms of relief, the findings of the Court, the provisions relating to notice and/or the terms of the Release, or (ii) the Court, or any appellate court(s), does not enter or completely affirm, or alters or expands, any portion of the Final Judgment or Order Approving Settlement, that the terminating party in its (or their) sole judgment and discretion reasonably believe(s) to be material. The terminating party must exercise the option to withdraw from and terminate this Agreement, as provided in this Subsection, no later than 20 days after receiving notice of the event giving rise to the grounds for the termination.

C. If an option to withdraw from and terminate this Agreement arises under Section XI.B of this Agreement, (i) neither Plaintiffs nor the Companies will be required for any reason or under any circumstance to exercise that option and (ii) any determination to exercise that option shall be made in good faith.

D. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms, then:

1. this Agreement shall be null and void and shall have no force or effect, and no party to this Agreement shall be bound by any of its terms, except for the terms of this subsection;

2. this Agreement, all of its provisions, and all negotiations, statements and proceedings relating to it shall be without prejudice to the rights of Plaintiffs and the Companies, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions existing immediately before the execution of this Agreement;

3. the Companies, and their current and former parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, heirs, agents, assigns, officers, directors, employees, partners, principals, attorneys and representatives expressly and affirmatively reserve all defenses, arguments and motions as to all claims that have been or might later be asserted in this Action;

4. Plaintiffs and the Companies and their current and former parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, heirs, agents, assigns, officers, directors, employees, partners, principals, attorneys and representatives expressly and affirmatively reserve all motions as to, and arguments in support of, all claims that have been or might later be asserted in this Action;

5. neither this Agreement, nor the fact of its having been made, shall be admissible or entered into evidence for any purpose whatsoever;

6. any order or judgment entered after the date of this Agreement will be deemed vacated and will be without any force and effect;

7. if required, any Attorneys' Fees and Expenses paid by the Companies will be returned to the Companies pursuant to in Section VIII.B. above; and

8. any confidentiality agreement executed with respect to the discovery contemplated by Section IV above shall remain in full force and effect.

XII. GENERAL MATTERS AND RESERVATIONS

A. The obligation, though not the ability, of the Parties to conclude the proposed settlement is and will be contingent on each of the following:

1. acceptance of this Settlement Agreement by the Boards;
2. compliance by the Companies with Section III.A. of this Agreement;
3. occurrence of the Derivative Final Settlement Date;
4. dismissal with prejudice of the Related Derivative Actions;
5. payment of the Attorneys' Fees and Expenses as required by Section VII; and
6. any other conditions stated in this Agreement.

B. The Parties and their counsel agree to keep the existence and contents of this Agreement and all related negotiations confidential until the date of the first public announcement by the Companies, which shall occur at the Companies' discretion; provided however, that this Section shall not prevent earlier disclosure of such information (i) by the Companies to the Boards, to their employees, auditors or rating agencies, or to its Directors and Officers or general liability insurers or (ii) by the Companies or Plaintiffs to any person or entity (such as experts and/or courts) to whom the Parties agree disclosure must be made to effectuate the terms and conditions of this Agreement; provided however, that the Companies shall be able to make, without notification to, or prior review or approval by, Plaintiffs' Counsel, any and all disclosures regarding the Settlement Agreement that the Companies believe may be required or appropriate under applicable law or by the rules of any securities exchange on which securities of the Companies are traded, or as required in connection with a judicial or regulatory proceeding.

C. By execution of this Agreement, neither the Individual Defendants nor the Companies intend to release any claim against any insurer for any cost or expense hereunder, including attorneys' fees and costs.

D. Plaintiffs' Counsel represents that (i) it is authorized to enter into this Agreement on behalf of Plaintiffs and any other Plaintiffs' counsel with respect to all claims released herein and (ii) it is seeking to protect the interests of the Companies and their Stockholders.

E. Ralph C. Ferrara represents that he is authorized to enter into this Agreement on behalf of the Companies.

F. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to its subject matter, and it may not be altered or modified except by written instrument executed by the Parties or their counsel. The Parties expressly warrant and represent and do hereby state that no promise or agreement that is not herein expressed has been made in executing this Agreement. There are no warranties between the parties of any kind other than those embodied in this Agreement.

G. In entering into this Agreement, no party has relied upon any representation, statement or warranty that is not set forth expressly herein.

H. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of New Jersey, excluding its conflict-of-law provisions.

I. Any action to enforce this Agreement shall be commenced and maintained only in the Court.

J. Whenever this Agreement requires or contemplates that one party shall or may give notice to another, notice shall be provided by facsimile and/or next-day (excluding Sunday) express delivery service as follows:

K. All time periods set forth herein shall be computed in calendar days unless otherwise expressly provided. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Agreement or by order of Court, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday, or, when the act to be done is the filing of a paper in Court, a day on which weather or other conditions have made the office of the Clerk of the Court inaccessible, in which event the period shall run until the end of the next day that is not one of the aforementioned days. As used in this subsection, "legal holiday" includes New Year's Day, Birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., Presidents' Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and any other day appointed as a federal holiday.

L. The Parties reserve the right, subject to the Court's approval, to make any reasonable extensions of time that might be necessary to carry out any of the provisions of this Agreement.

M. All Parties agree that this Agreement was drafted at arm's length, and that no parol or other evidence may be offered to explain, construe, contradict or clarify its terms, the intent of the Parties or their counsel, or the circumstances under which the Agreement was made or executed; provided, that there shall be no presumption for or against any Party that drafted all or any portion of this Settlement Agreement.

N. In no event shall this Agreement, any of its provisions, or any negotiations, statements or court proceedings relating to its provisions in any way be construed as, offered as, received as, used as or deemed to be evidence of any kind in this Action, any other action, or any judicial, administrative, regulatory or other proceeding, except a proceeding to enforce this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, neither this Agreement nor any related negotiations, statements or court proceedings shall be construed as, offered as, received as, used as or deemed to be evidence or an admission or concession of any liability or wrongdoing whatsoever on the part of any person or entity, including but not limited to the Companies and the Individual Defendants, or as a waiver by the Companies and/or the Individual Defendants of any applicable defense, or as a waiver by Plaintiffs or the Companies of any claims, causes of action or remedies.

O. The Companies expressly deny any wrongdoing alleged in the pleadings and do not admit or concede any actual or potential fault, wrongdoing or liability in connection with any facts or claims that have been or could have been alleged in this Action, but consider it desirable for this Action to be settled and dismissed because this settlement will (i) provide substantial benefits to the Companies and their Stockholders, (ii) avoid the substantial expense and further disruption of the management and operation of the Companies' business due to the Action and (iii) finally put Plaintiffs' claims and the underlying matters to rest.

P. Plaintiffs' Counsel expressly represent that the allegations contained in the Complaint were made in good faith and have a substantial basis in fact. They nevertheless consider it desirable for the Action to be settled and dismissed in light of the risks of this litigation and because of the substantial benefits provided to the Companies and their Stockholders under the proposed settlement.

Q. The Parties to this Agreement, their successors and assigns, and their attorneys undertake to implement the terms of this Agreement in good faith, and to use good faith in resolving any disputes that may arise in the implementation of its terms.

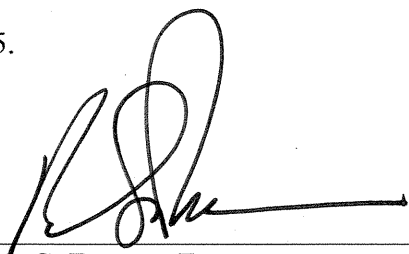

R. The Parties, their successors and assigns, and their attorneys agree to cooperate fully with one another in seeking court approval of this Agreement and to use their best efforts to effect the prompt consummation of this Agreement and the proposed settlement.

S. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute a duplicate original. Execution by facsimile shall be fully and legally binding on a Party, and the Party so executing shall promptly provide a fully executed counterpart to each of the other Parties.

T. All Releasees who are not parties to this Agreement are intended third-party beneficiaries entitled to enforce the terms of the Release set forth herein.

Agreed to as of this 22nd day of July, 2005.
